

2005-19

>>> <leonblazejewski@aol.com> 9/9/2006 1:17:02 PM >>>

I have been a registered voter/licensed driver in Michigan for almost all of my adult life - now 61. I have never been asked to serve as a juror. With all the uproar regarding people who can't or don't want to serve, why can't a volunteer/preferred group of jurors be established.

This would better serve the judicial system.

Is there a method for me to volunteer?

Regards,

Leon Blazejewski